DETAILED ACTION

1. Prosecution is hereby reopened in view of the new rejection set forth below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Weissman. The reference discloses the invention substantially as claimed, namely a plurality of sheets connected together to form a polyhedron solid form comprising a first square shaped sheet and a second triangle shaped sheet (see column 6, lines 16-17 and Figures 15 and 16) wherein each sheet has coupling parts 504, 604 protruding outwardly from each side edge that are not adjacent to each other and through slots formed around, i.e. near, each corner thereof. However, the primary reference that the sheets may be formed from plastic or the like, but does not specifically disclose polypropylene foam; see column 3, lines 1-3. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to utilize any well known plastic material, such as polypropylene foam, as the sheet material in the product of the reference depending on the end use of the solid form.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2 and 3 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Priority

5. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority. It is noted, however, that applicant has not filed a certified copy as required by 35 U.S.C. 119(b).
